MUNICIPAL SELF-ISOLATION ORDER LIFTED

Skagway, Alaska, June 5, 2020 – The Municipality of Skagway Assembly adopted Resolution No. 20-21R, ending the self-isolation order for those arriving in Skagway. Going forward the MOS will follow the State of Alaska health guidance for Alaska Travelers.

Governor Dunleavy recently announced that on June 6 at 12:01 a.m., Alaska will remove the quarantine requirement for travelers who can show proof of two negative COVID-19 test results. Other travelers may instead adhere to the 14-day quarantine. For more information and guidance on the state requirements visit <https://covid19.alaska.gov/travelers/>.

For more information about all of the State of Alaska health mandate requirements, please visit <https://covid19.alaska.gov/reopen/>.

The Municipality of Skagway continues to encourage residents and visitors to practice social distancing and good hygiene as detailed by the State of Alaska and the CDC. For more information on COVID testing in Skagway please call Dahl Memorial Clinic at 907-983-2255. To protect staff and patients, do not proceed to DMC without calling first. Testing is by appointment only.
