MUNICIPALITY OF SKAGWAY, ALASKA
RESOLUTION NO. 09-30R

A RESOLUTION OF THE MUNICIPALITY OF SKAGWAY, ALASKA NAMING THE NEW WEST CREEK RECREATION AREA ACCESS BRIDGE THE JAY FREY RECREATION BRIDGE.

WHEREAS, Jay Frey spent over 40 of his 63 plus years in the Dyea Valley enjoying hiking, hunting, trapping, fishing and hanging out with friends (from September 1, 1964 to his death in 2005); and

WHEREAS, Jay Frey spent a good portion of the hours while in Dyea in the West Creek Valley and was a strong supporter of opening the West Creek area to recreational use; and

WHEREAS, Jay Frey served on the Skagway City Council for 14 years from October 1, 1991 to the date of his death on May 20, 2005; and

WHEREAS, Jay Frey for many of those years on the City Council was the Finance Committee Chairman and was a watchdog of the City's finances and Land Fund making sure that there was always money available to support recreational use; and

WHEREAS, Jay Frey would have supported the access bridge across West Creek as a demonstrable way to create a new access to this beautiful part of the West Creek valley, and

WHEREAS, while the true measure of a man will never be land, money, or fame Jay Frey will be remembered for all his good deeds on behalf of his fellow man in the Dyea Valley and West Creek specifically,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Municipality of Skagway name the new access bridge at West Creek the Jay Frey Recreation Bridge, and to have signs erected at both ends identifying it as such

PASSED AND APPROVED by a duly constituted quorum of the Borough Assembly of the Municipality of Skagway this 1st day of October, 2009.
